Appalachian State University is committed to developing and allocating resources to the fundamental task of creating a diverse campus culture. We value diversity as the expression of human similarities and differences, as well as the importance of a living and learning environment conducive to knowledge, respect, acceptance, understanding and global awareness.

16% total ethnically diverse student enrollment* (18% among first-year students)

* Combined percentage of self-declared African Americans, Asian Americans, Hispanic Americans and Native Americans in the U.S. citizen/legal resident portion of the student population. Actual counts may be higher, as some students choose not to report their ethnicity.

18% 2017 ethnically diverse first-year students

43.5 : 56.5 male-to-female student ratio

138 number of international students on campus in Fall 2017

7% ethnically diverse instructional faculty (Fall 2016)

302 enrolled student veterans